

94th Annual Spring Contest Powwow

Presented by the American Indian Student Association at the University of Oklahoma

Head Staff

Masters of Ceremonies

Hammond Motah & Tom Morgan

Head Man Dancer

Pat Moore Sr

Head Lady Dancer

Kay Kay Franklin

Arena Directors

Randy Frazier & Sam Howell

Southern Host Drum

Yellowhammer

Northern Host Drum

Blackbird Singers

2008 Honored Alumnus

Randi Sunray

Co-Host

Comanche Little Ponies

Color Guard

Seminole Nation Color Guard

Saturday, April 19, 2008

Lloyd Noble Center
Norman, OK

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

- 11:30a Doors Open to the Public at Main East Side Entrance
12pm Opening Prayer followed by Gourd Dance Session
4:30 Supper Break
6:30 Grand Entry
7:00 Honor Songs for Miss Indian OU and 2008 Graduates
7:30 Dance Competitions/Intertribals
11:00 Announcement of Winners and Committee Special

Stomp Dance will be held April 18th, 2008 at Lloyd Noble Center

Miss Indian OU Pageant will be held March 31, 2008 at Oklahoma Memorial Union

No Giveaways, No Exceptions

No outside chairs, stadium seating provided.

Vendor Information: $65 per day or $100 for both powwow and stompdance.

For more information call 405-325-7945 or email ou.aisa@ou.edu

For accommodations based on disability, contact Lindy Waters, American Indian Student Life Director at 405-325-1468

Oklahoma's Largest and oldest university powwow!

Free Parking and Admission

Art and Craft Vendors

Contests (3 Places)

Golden Age (Ages 55+)

Men (Combined) and Women (Combined)

Adults (Ages 16-54)

Men: Straight, Traditional, Grass, Fancy

Women: Buckskin, Cloth, Jingle, Fancy Shawl

Tiny Tots (0-7)

Sponsored by Oklahoma Indian Bikers

Jr. Girls Cloth (8-12)

Sponsored by Comanche Little Ponies

Drum Contest (6 Singer Minimum) Must Register by 2pm. No Exceptions