

Spring Meeting Agenda
April 20, 2013

O'A'S - 'A' is for Anthropology:

How the past informs the present and how research impacts current living populations, as well as understanding the prehistoric human condition

University of Oklahoma
Dale Hall Room 112
433 West Lindsey Street
Norman, Oklahoma
<http://goo.gl/maps/bKhZt>

- 8:15 – 9:30 Registration
- 8:15 – 9:15 OAS Board of Director's Meeting
- 9:30 – 10:10 Lauren M. Cleeland, Department of Anthropology, University of Oklahoma
"Oh, Those Pesky Parasites: Prehistoric Parasitism Informing the Modern World: A Case Study"
- 10:15 – 10:55 Susan S. Vehik, Department of Anthropology, University of Oklahoma
"Men Only? The Role of Women in the Little River Focus Council Circles of Central Kansas"
- 11:00 – 11:45 OAS General Meeting
- 11:45 – 1:15 Lunch
- 1:15 – 1:45 OAS Awards, Chairman Mary McHard
- 1:45 – 2:25 Patrick C. Livingood, Department of Anthropology, University of Oklahoma
"How far away do you live from your chief? Insights on the political life of Mississippian peoples in the southeast"
- 2:25 – 2:45 Break
- 2:45 – 3:25 Asa R. Randall, Department of Anthropology, University of Oklahoma
"The archaeology of sea level rise: the past's crucial role in coping with future climate change"
- 3:30 – 4:10 Holly Andrew & Bonnie L. Pitblado, Department of Anthropology, University of Oklahoma
"Emphasizing the "Public" in Public Archaeology: Revealing the Paleoindian Past through Professional- and Citizen-Archaeologist Partnerships"
- 4:15 – 4:30 Moderator: Summary