

Letters and Classics Scholarship Information Spring 2012

The Classics and Letters Department annually awards scholarships to our outstanding junior and senior majors. The scholarships are open to full time Letters or Classics majors who have accrued 60 hours (including hours tested out of) and a minimum 3.0 GPA. Some scholarships are for Letters majors only; some for Letters or Classics majors, some for study abroad; one is reserved for students pursuing a teaching career in Latin. For consideration, a hard copy of the completed application must be brought to the Classics and Letters Department Office, Carnegie Rm110 no later than Friday, March 9. Winners will be announced at the Classics and Letters reception on Wednesday, April 25 from 3:00–5:00 p.m. in the Beard Lounge of the OMU.
