Tenure Track Faculty Position in Cybersecurity

The School of Computer Science in the Gallogly College of Engineering at the University of Oklahoma is entering an exciting period of growth opportunities in cybersecurity and data science and analytics (DSA). We are seeking applications for a tenure track faculty position at the rank of an assistant professor who has demonstrated research skills in cybersecurity, especially at the intersection of cybersecurity and DSA. The new online graduate program in DSA is an innovative collaboration with the School of Industrial and Systems Engineering, and has experienced significant enrollment growth during the startup phase. We offer B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degree programs in computer science and the M.S. degree in DSA.

Applicants should hold a Ph.D. in computer science and should be committed to excellence in teaching and research. Candidates should have demonstrated potential for outstanding research in cybersecurity and have ability to teach courses in these areas at all levels, including advising M.S and Ph.D. students.

The application package should include: 1) single page cover letter describing the motivation in pursuing this position, 2) curriculum vitae, 3) teaching and research statements, 4) 1-2 papers that best represent research contributions and scholarship, and 5) list of at least three references. Applications should be submitted via soonerway.ou.edu. Inquiries about the position can be addressed to Professor Sridhar Radhakrishnan, chair of the search committee, at sridhar@ou.edu. We encourage applicants to apply by December 1, 2017, though application packages will be accepted until the position is filled.

The University of Oklahoma is a Carnegie-R1 comprehensive public research university known for excellence in teaching, research, and community engagement, serving the educational, cultural, economic and health-care needs of the state, region, and nation from three campuses: the main campus in Norman, the Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City, and the Schusterman Center in Tulsa.
