Call for Entries

Contest is open to all current University of Oklahoma College of Architecture students. You just need a pen + white cocktail napkin! Napkins available from Director’s Assistant, Camille Germany in Gould Hall Room 282.

Two overall prize winners! CASH prizes!

Napkins will be judged by a professional panel of jurors and winners will be announced at the College of Architecture’s 7th annual Charles W. Graham Benefit Dinner, on February 9th. Winners will receive cash prizes and the overall prize winner will also receive a box of napkins with their sketches printed on them.

How to Enter

Create a sketch on a 5”x5” white paper cocktail napkin. Sketches must be drawn specifically for this competition, and must be original.

Sketches can be entered in 5 categories. Use only a black or blue ballpoint or ink pen. No highlighters, colored pencils or crayons.

Two entries per student. No team entries.

Include name, email address + year in school on the back of each entry.

Include registration form (below) with entries.

All materials must be received no later than January 23rd, 2018. Mail in or drop off as indicated below.
