Application for Accelerated Dual-Degree Program
BS in AE & MS in AE
School of Aerospace and Mechanical Engineering (AME)
University of Oklahoma
(Program 0902N)

Program Description
An accelerated five-year dual-degree program that results in the award of BS and MS in Aerospace Engineering

Minimal Admission Requirements
- Undergraduate OU student majoring in Aerospace Engineering
- OU retention and combined retention GPA’s of 3.25 or better Approval for status change to BS/MS (To be initiated before the beginning of the advising period, during the second semester of the junior year).

Instructions
This form should be submitted to the Graduate Programs Assistant, FH212, along with the following attachments:
1. The Degree Navigator graduation report listing current and/or selected courses.
2. A letter supporting your application from a faculty member who will be your graduate advisor and two additional recommendation letters.
3. A plan outlining the graduate courses to be completed and when the GRE will be taken.

Name ______________________________________ ID No. ________________________

Phone No. ___________________ E-mail ______________________________

Address: _____________________________________________________________

OU Retention GPA ___________ Combined Retention GPA _________________

Graduate Faculty Advisor: _______________________________________________

Student Signature___________________________ Date_______________________

To be completed by the AME Office:

GPA Verified_______ Requisite Courses ______ Accept ______ Deny_______

AME Graduate Liaison Signature _____________________________ Date___________

Comments_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

6/22/07