Keynote Speakers
Dr. Debbie Silver is an award-winning educator with 30 years experience as a classroom teacher, staff development instructor, and university professor. One of her numerous recognitions includes being named the Louisiana State Teacher of the Year. Along the way she has taught almost every grade level and most every kind of student. Dr. Silver has been an invited author for several educational journals and has given keynotes at state, national, and international conferences in 49 states, Canada, Europe, and Asia. She has been a featured teacher for the PBS OnLine Teacher Chat and for KDS Knowledge Delivery Systems. Debbie is the author of the bestselling book, Drumming to the Beat of Different Marchers: Finding the Rhythm for Differentiated Learning. She is co-author of Because you Teach and Middle School Matters. Visit http://www.debbiesilver.com/ for more information about Dr. Silver.

Andrea R. Kunkel Esq. We are pleased to have Andrea Kunkel return to our conference and provide us with updates and insight into laws, court cases, policies, and the latest legislation updates. Andrea is a special education attorney who will provide us with the necessary legal information special educators need to know. Her presentation will include current legal issues involving state and federal laws affecting special education and general education presented in a manner that is easily understood.
