Fall 2017 Internship Orientation

Sam Noble Museum of Natural History
August 21st, 2017
9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

8:30-9:00  Registration

9:00-9:20  Welcome and Information

Dean Gregg Garn, College of Education

Catherine Carter, Lead Educator Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History

Melanie Adams, Career Services, OMU 323, Activating your hiresooner account

Jamie Aldridge, Certification Office, ECH 100, Preparing for your certification

9:20-10:00  Jon Hazell, Oklahoma Teacher of the Year

10:00-11:30  Group Meetings

11:30-1:30  We hope you will join JRCoE students, faculty, and staff for a Solar Eclipse Watch Party in front of Collings Hall on the South Oval!

• Science Education faculty and students will be on-hand for guidance and questions
• Viewing glasses and an indirect viewer station will be available
• Learn about app downloads and instructions from NASA and other groups to enhance your eclipse experience
• The Social Media Station will help you share your experience online!
• FREE FOOD!

REQUIRED ONLINE TUTORIAL

The Internship: Professionalism and Legal Issues
Due Aug. 28, 2017, 11:59pm

This tutorial includes information about professionalism and important legal issues associated with your student teaching internship. The tutorial includes four modules:

I. You are a professional educator.
II. You have a duty to protect confidential information.
III. You have a duty to maintain firm boundaries between yourself and your students.
IV. The importance of self-care.

You will study the information in each module and then complete an associated quiz. You must pass all quizzes by the designated due date.

The tutorial is a Canvas course (canvas.ou.edu) titled The Internship: Professionalism and Legal Issues. If you do not see this course on your Canvas page, please contact Dr. DeBacker (debacker@ou.edu).