The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA
Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education

Master of Education (M.Ed.)
in Educational Administration, Curriculum and Supervision

OVERVIEW
The University of Oklahoma offers the Master of Education in Educational Administration, Curriculum and Supervision degree in its entirety on the Norman campus. Cohorts generally include 15-30 students. There are several delivery approaches used for courses, including the traditional late afternoon/evening courses that run for an entire semester, as well as an alternative blended online cohort.

OU’s M.Ed. in Educational Administration is a nationally recognized and accredited program that is approved by the State of Oklahoma as meeting preparation standards for building level school leadership and certification. The goals of the EACS program are to:
• prepare educators for leadership roles;
• produce, disseminate and consume research that informs leadership practices;
• provide service to the professional, scholarly and University communities;
• promote the use and integration of technology; and provide highly relevant field practice.
