The Oklahoma Transition Council, in collaboration with the National Secondary Transition Technical Assistance Center and the IDEA Partnership, is offering four regional transition meetings at no cost. Regional transition teams and those interested in secondary transition, especially public school educators and administrators and other agencies that provide secondary transition services, should attend. Each training will be over the course of two days—Day 1 (for all participants) will cover content specific to involving key stakeholders on regional transition teams, utilizing transition assessments, postsecondary goals, and incorporating the information into the Oklahoma IEP transition pages. Day 2 (for pairs of Vocational Rehabilitation [VR] Counselors and Special Education Teachers/Directors) will be a “train-the-trainer” model where pairs of VR counselors and special education personnel will work together to learn how to replicate this training in their region. Participants attending Day 2 must have attended Day 1. Lunch is provided both days. A stipend will be provided for participation on Saturday, March 1, 2008. Sessions are repeated at the various locations. See page 2 for more details.

Teachers, please bring one unidentified IEP to work on in your group.

For registration forms, you may contact Ms. Monica McFarlin, Project Coordinator, by telephone at (405) 521-4869 or by e-mail at <Monica_McFarlin@sde.state.ok.us>, Ms. Candi Robinson, Technical Assistance Coordinator, by telephone at (405) 522-4365, or by e-mail at <Candi_Robinson@sde.state.ok.us>.
Day 1 Objective: Participants who attend the first day of training will hear from national, state, and local experts on building teams, conduct transition assessment, and complete IEP transition pages. The focus will be on:

* Building local transition teams;
* Selecting, utilizing, and interpreting results from transition assessment; and
* How to incorporate all of this information on the transition pages of the Oklahoma IEP.

Day 2 Objective: Participants who attend the second day must have attended Day 1 to obtain the content information. Pairs of VR Counselors and Special Education Teachers/Directors, who have an interest in providing this training to a wider audience, are invited to attend. The focus of Day 2 will be on:

* How to conduct this type of presentation;
* Reviewing materials; and
* Logistics for setting up presentations.

Note: Day 2 is specifically designed for pairs/teams to attend with the intent that they will replicate this training.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Special Education Personnel (e.g., teachers, directors, paraprofessionals, related service providers, administrators)
On Day 1, you will learn the ins and outs of meeting the new requirements outlined in the reauthorization of IDEA 2004 and how to complete the newly revised Oklahoma IEP pages. On Day 2, you will work with a VR partner to learn how to develop future trainings.

Parents and Students (including students who have already left high school)
On Day 1, you will learn how your involvement on local transition teams can help improve transition services for students with disabilities attending K-12 public schools. You will also learn the components that are required for secondary transition planning.

Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors
On Day 1, you will learn how you can help meet the new requirements outlined in the reauthorization of IDEA 2004 and how you can assist with completing the newly revised Oklahoma IEP pages. On Day 2, you will work with a special education partner to learn how to develop future trainings.

Career and Technology Education Personnel and Other Agencies Providing Transition Services
On Day 1, you will learn how you can help meet the new requirements outlined in the reauthorization of IDEA 2004 and how you can assist with completing the newly revised Oklahoma IEP pages.

Note: Day 2 is only intended for VR Counselors and special education teachers/directors.
