The Center for Learning and Leadership, Oklahoma’s federally designated University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD), as the copyright holder for the Personal Preference Indicators (PPI) and the Child Preference Indicators (CPI) tools, gives the Zarrow Center permission to post these tools online. Users may download and use the Preference Indicators tools for personal or instructional purposes for free and may direct other users to the Zarrow Center to access the materials. Users may not modify the PPI, nor the CPI, and may not redistribute either tool in any form without permission from the copyright holder. Users may not sell this material.

For additional information or permission to further distribute the Personal Preference Indicators or the Child Preference Indicators, please contact Mrs. Moss at JAN-MOSS@OUHSC.EDU. To request distribution, please provide your name and organization, indicate the number to be distributed, date, purpose and intended audience or recipients.
