Study Facilities

Gaylord Hall features 107,000 square feet of state-of-the-art technology and classroom space.

- Dedicated study and research space for all graduate assistants
- Private cubicles for doctoral students
- Teleconference-enabled conference room for committee meetings and seminar classes
- 4,000-square-foot Lindsey+Asp advertising and public relations agency including:
  - five idea-generation rooms
  - focus group room with observation room featuring full audio and video capabilities
  - client presentation room
- A 180-seat broadcast-ready auditorium for large classes, presentations and guest speakers
- Two HD-equipped television studios and a two-story soundstage with infinity wall and green screen
- Two large, open computer labs and five computer classrooms equipped with Apple computers and industry-standard software from Adobe, Avid, Microsoft and Apple
- 14 dedicated video editing suites and a multi-track audio recording studio
- Campus research library ranked 32nd out of 114 academic research libraries in North America for volumes held with 5 million volumes, 75,000 serials subscriptions (print and electronic), and 300 databases

For more information about the Gaylord College Graduate Studies, contact 405-325-2722 (GaylordGrad@ou.edu) or go to www.ou.edu/gaylordgrad.