Kappa Tau Alpha

Knowledge • Truth • Accuracy

Kappa Tau Alpha is the only nationally accredited honor society for journalism and mass communication students. This spring, KTA inducts its 101st class of honor students. OU’s H. H. Herbert chapter was founded in 1951.

Membership is by invitation only and is based upon academic achievement. Only students majoring in journalism or mass communication are eligible.

The emblem of Kappa Tau Alpha is the key, the oldest symbol of knowledge and communication.
