The University of Hertfordshire
England

The University
The University of Hertfordshire is a state university in south east England, located on the outskirts of London, close to the historic city of St Albans and to three international airports, convenient for travel from the US and to other parts of the UK and Europe. It can offer the ‘best of both worlds’ - a campus university, with excellent teaching, learning, residential and sports facilities in a green and safe environment, yet less than half an hour by train from central London.

The University of Hertfordshire is a comprehensive university spread out over four campuses. The main campus, is at Hatfield and the other campuses are at Hertford (Business), Watford (Humanities, language and education), and St. Albans (L).

What about academic credit?
Grades received on reciprocal exchange study abroad programs through the University of Oklahoma are posted by the Office of Admissions as Satisfactory (S) or Unsatisfactory (U) on the OU permanent record. These grades are not factored into the participant’s Grade Point Average. Because each student is enrolled in 12 credits per semester while abroad, participants are expected to enroll in an equivalent number of credits at the host university.
Academic systems around the world vary in what equals 12 OU credits. The decision about awarding credits is made in the Office of Admissions at OU.

Where would I live?
Exchange students are guaranteed on campus housing. http://www.herts.ac.uk/why-us/accommodation/
Prices for 2006-07 vary from £71.61 (US$ 128.90,) to £89.81 ($ 161.66,) per week depending on the type of accommodation.

How much does it cost?
Costs at OU: All students participating on semester or academic year reciprocal exchange programs are enrolled at OU for 12 credits each semester abroad. Tuition and fees are billed through and paid directly to OU at the appropriate resident or non-resident rate. Fees are charged at the Arts and Sciences College rate, even if the student’s major is in a different college. All participants pay a $10/credit hour study abroad fee.
There is a $ 35 non-refundable application fee for study abroad.
The University of Hertfordshire estimates the each student will need between £120.00 and £130.00 per week for living expenses. Below is a breakdown of expenses:
