The inaugural event of the Max and Heidi Berry Chair Lecture Series

“The Repetition and Loss. Jewish Refugees and German Communists after the Holocaust, 1945-1951.”

with
Dr. Jonathan Zatlin
Associate Professor of History and Associate Director of the Honors College at Boston University

Monday, Sept. 16, 2013 • Noon - 1:30p.m.
JJ Rhyne Community Room, Zarrow Hall

Jonathan R. Zatlin is Associate Professor of History and Associate Director of the Honors College at Boston University, as well as an Affiliate at Harvard’s Minda de Gunzberg Center for European Studies and a Non-Resident Fellow at the American Institute for Contemporary German Studies at Johns Hopkins University. He currently serves on the executive board of the Central European History Society. In 2011, he was awarded the DAAD Prize for Distinguished Scholarship in German and European Studies.

Zatlin has written widely on the history of German communism. He is the author of The Currency of Socialism: Money and Political Culture in East Germany (Cambridge University Press, 2007), which was named a finalist for the President’s Book Award of the Social Science History Association in 2006. He also co-edited Selling Modernity: German Advertising in the Twentieth Century (Duke University Press, 2007) with Pamela E. Swett and S. Jonathan Wiesen. His work has appeared in English, French and German in numerous scholarly journals.

This event is co-sponsored by the European Union Center, Judaic Studies, the Department of International and Area Studies and the College of International Studies. For accommodations on the basis of disability contact Kelli Silver at: Kelli.E.Silver-1@ou.edu