Wednesday, October 30, 2013 • Noon

Rebuilding Post-War Afghanistan
A brown-bag lunch and presentation with

DR. ANDREW WILDER
J.J. Rhyne Room
Zarrow Hall

Dr. Andrew Wilder is currently serving as the director of the Afghanistan and Pakistan program at the United States Institute of Peace (USIP). From 2002 to 2005, Dr. Wilder served as founder and director of Afghanistan’s first independent policy research institution, the Kabul-based Afghanistan Research and Evaluation Unit (AREU). He has more than 10 years of experience managing humanitarian and development programs in Pakistan and Afghanistan. He is also the author of The Pakistani Voter: Electoral Politics and Voting Behavior in the Punjab (Oxford University Press, 1999), and numerous book chapters, journal articles and other publications. Dr. Wilder’s interests include state-building, reconstruction and stabilization efforts in Afghanistan, specifically examining the effectiveness of aid in promoting stabilization objectives in Afghanistan.

Special consideration is given to the Office of the President for providing funding to support IAS 3003.007, 9/11 and the War on Terror as a Presidential Dream Course and these guest lecturers. All events are free and open to the public. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact IAS at 325-1584.

RSVP to Karina Legradi at klegradi@ou.edu by Oct 29

As part of Dr. Mariam Mufti’s IAS 3003.007 “9/11 and the War on Terror” Presidential Dream Course Lecture Series

An Afghan boy flies a kite from atop the rusty frame of an abandoned Soviet military vehicle on the outskirts of Kabul, Afghanistan. (AP Photo/Ahmad Jamshid)