Purpose
The purpose of the student conference presentation travel grant program is to provide financial assistance to academically outstanding students who are presenting research information that is leading towards a significant product of creative activity. Typically, these creative activities include dissertation or thesis research, articles for publication, or national performances/exhibitions. Determination of the type of activity is related to the particular type of scholarly degree, while significance is determined by the level of academic endeavor.

Eligibility Criteria
Applicants for these funds:
- Must be defined by the Graduate College as fulltime graduate students.
- Must be an active presenter at the conference.
- Must be in good academic standing and have an OU grade point average of 3.50 or better.
- Must have completed at least 9 graduate credit hours at the university.

Application Dates
Jan 15 for travel between Mar 1-Jun 30
Apr 15 for travel between Jul 1-Nov 30
Sept 15 for travel between Dec 1-Feb 28

Application Process

1. The applicant must provide a completed application package by one of the stated deadlines.
2. The application package must include
   a. The completed application form with the appropriate signatures.
   b. Verification of the student's presentation at the conference.
   c. A recommendation letter from the student’s major advisor. This letter must outline the significance of the meeting to the student’s graduate program and development, the type of conference the applicant is attending (i.e., regional/national, topical/disciplinary) and indicate the student’s progress toward their graduate degree.
   d. A complete travel budget indicating those items for which the student is requesting funds.
   e. A brief description of the research being presented.
3. Applications will be reviewed during the two weeks after the deadline.
4. A notification letter will be sent to the applicant’s OU e-mail address once the decisions are made. Copies of this decision will also go to the major professor and the department chair.
5. Applicants who have received awards should contact the department support staff regarding the payment/reimbursement of these funds. In general, the department must send a copy of the completed travel reimbursement request to the Graduate College by the deadline stated in the notification letter. The Graduate College will then transfer funds to the student’s department for disbursement to the student. The Graduate College will not transfer funds if the reimbursement request is received after the stated deadline.

Restrictions & Limitations

Selection Considerations
In general, preference will be given to:

- Students who are presenting at major national conferences that cover a broad spectrum of topics within the discipline rather than those conferences that focus on a narrow topic of interest.
- Students who have received other department or university distinctions of academic excellence.
- Students who are pursuing the highest degree offered at OU in their field, and who are further along in the degree-completion process.
- Students who are actively presenting papers or performances or other creative products rather than those who are engaged in passive presentation formats.
- Students who are the first student author on a paper.
