The University of Oklahoma
Campus Activities Council
Concert Series

2011-2012 Exec Application

The Campus Activities Council Concert Series is a group of OU students who coordinate various musical artists to perform at the University of Oklahoma. Responsibilities include promoting concerts, distributing posters, assisting with the production of concerts and providing input as to who to bring to campus. It is important to be aware of the time commitment before applying for this position. Concert Series will meet at least twice a month and any events sponsored by the exec are MANDATORY. Three or more missed meetings or events will result in termination from the exec.
