The Campus Activities Council (CAC) Oklahoma Creativity Festival is a brand new three-day event for OU students, staff, and faculty, as well as the entire Oklahoma community. The event is a time where people of all ages will come together to enjoy and participate in creativity of every form on display and in action on OU's campus. The weekend is planned entirely by OU students and gives the surrounding community an opportunity to showcase creative and innovative ideas. Come and be a part of this great action committee and leave a legacy for OU's newest tradition!

Oklahoma Creativity Festival Volunteer Opportunity
Descriptions

Event Staff:
This is a volunteer opportunity to be the manpower for our events. Staff will man registration tables and information booths, run carnival stations, and distribute flyers and other items.

Event Usher:
This volunteer opportunity is only for closing ceremonies on Saturday night. Volunteers will hand out programs and direct people to seats.

Setup/Teardown:
This is a volunteer opportunity to set up and clean up for any events which may require it.

Event Publicity:
This is a volunteer opportunity that entails being an ambassador of OCF to other student organizations, colleges, or community organizations to help advertise individual events.

Creative Liaison:
This is a volunteer opportunity to help develop event ideas that organizations could contribute to OCF, and coordinates with those organizations to take part in OCF.

Event Coordinator:
This is a volunteer opportunity for a person/group to actually be in charge of putting on an event. You will be given certain instructions, but can have creative direction for the event. You may get a club/group or any other students involved and develop a committee to make the event happen.
