HANDBOOK FOR THE GUIDANCE OF FRESHMEN

The purpose of this publication is to furnish students with a convenient handbook of rules and regulations which govern the ordinary class and social activities.

ADMISSION

Graduation from an accredited four-year high school or three-year senior high school is required for admission to freshman standing in the university. Only those high-school graduates who are recommended by the authorities of the high school are eligible.

For detailed statement of requirements for admission see the general catalog of the university. Applicants for admission should see that their credentials are filed with the registrar of the university. Each applicant should receive in return a card of admission to the university. This card should be preserved carefully and presented to the adviser when the student comes to enroll.

REGISTRATION

The first step in registration is that of admission. If you are a new student and have not already filed your high-school credits or credits from another college, take them to the Committee on Admission where you will receive an admission card. If you have already received this card, or if you are a former student and have your course book, the above step is omitted. If you have lost your course book go to Room A207.

The next step is to go to your adviser. If you are an upperclassman your adviser is the head of your major department. If you are a freshman in the College of Arts and Sciences go to the Freshman Advisory Committee in Buchanan Hall. Otherwise, go to the dean of your school or college, or to the respective advisers named on page 2 of this handbook. The approval of your adviser must appear on the enrollment blank.

After your adviser has approved your card take it to the section committee where your section will be assigned. Then copy in ink the rest of your blanks.

Take all blanks to the registry office or to a sub-office assigned for your special school or group in the building where you are enrolling. When the stamp of the registry clerk is received take the blanks to the office of the financial clerk where fees and deposits are paid. Your enrolment is not complete until fees and deposits have been paid.

Consult the campus directory in the class schedule for the above mentioned rooms.

Consult the Catalog: The catalog contains complete information concerning courses and requirements. Before deciding on any course read the description of the course in the catalog and be sure that you have the necessary prerequisites as given in the description. Read carefully the material preceding the description of courses. Here will be found information concerning the schools and colleges in which courses belong and other essential information.

Responsibility: The student is responsible for correct enrolment and the satisfaction of requirements for graduation. The registrar and the deans and other advisers will render all possible assistance.
IRREGULAR ENROLMENT

The student who for some reason does not wish to follow the regular curriculum of the school or college in which he is enrolling must have the approval of his dean.

ATTENDANCE

To pursue work properly in the university a student should be present at each meeting of the class. If he is obliged to be absent from any recitation, lecture, or laboratory on account of illness or other unavoidable cause he should report promptly to the instructor the reason for the absence. This report is merely for the instructor’s information and does not serve as an excuse for the absence.

A passing grade will not be given in any course where the student has not attended at least eighty per cent of the class recitations and laboratory periods of the course, but at the discretion of the instructor the student may receive an E (condition) or an I (incomplete) in the course.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION

After a student has completed his registration by payment of his fees, no change of studies will be permitted except for extraordinary reasons, and then only upon the approval of his dean.

Before any change in registration, adding or dropping a course, or both, is completed, the student must:

1. Secure the proper card from the registry office.
2. Secure his dean’s approval.
3. If dropping a course after the third week of the semester, secure a statement of class standing from the instructor.
4. Return the card to the registry office for stamping.
5. File the card with the financial office and pay necessary fees.

FEE FOR LATE REGISTRATION

A student registering after the regular period will often have difficulty in securing assistance, and in addition he will be required to pay a late enrolment fee of $2 for the first day late, with an increase of one dollar a day thereafter to a maximum fee of $5.

WITHDRAWAL

Permission to withdraw from the university before the close of the semester should be secured from the dean, and filed with the registry office. Otherwise, a certificate of honorable withdrawal or a refund of deposits will not be granted, and the student will receive a mark of failure in all courses.

GRADES

Semester grades in all courses are filed in the registry office and the records in this office are the official records of the university.

The passing grades, in the order of rank used are: A, B, C, D. The non-passing grades are: E, condition, F, failure, and I, incomplete.

At the end of the first nine weeks of each semester, grade and attendance reports are sent to the student advisers.
HONORABLE DISMISSAL

A student who wishes to transfer to another university, will upon request, receive a transcript of his record and an honorable dismissal.

Honorable dismissal will be withheld only in case of a serious breach of discipline. In case the student is not permitted to re-enter the university because of poor class work, or may re-enter only on probation, the transcript will contain this information, but the honorable dismissal will not be withheld on this account.

The student should recognize the importance of leaving the university with his record clear. The university authorities are called upon to give confidential reports to employers and to bonding companies for several years after the student has left the university. His success, therefore, in securing a position often depends upon the sort of report that can be made from his permanent record card.

TRANSFERRING FROM ONE COLLEGE TO ANOTHER

A student who wishes to transfer from one college or school of the university to another must secure an honorable dismissal from the college or school last attended. This is filed in the registry office.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

If a student, after registering, changes his home address or his Norman address, he is expected to notify the registry office in writing at once. All students must present written permission from the office of the dean of men or the women's counselor to change rooming places during the semester.

OFFICIAL NOTICES

Any official notice from university authorities requires a student's prompt compliance.

FEES AND DEPOSITS

Tuition for class work is free in all departments of the university to residents of Oklahoma. Nonresident students are required to pay tuition as explained hereafter. Students taking laboratory courses are required to pay the cost of the materials used.

GENERAL FEES

The following fees (which do not include those of the summer session) are collected regularly from all students at the time of enrolment.

- Incidental and service fee, each semester: $10.00
- R. O. T. C., first semester: 12.00
- Women's League, each semester: 0.50
- Physical Education for Women, each semester: 2.50
- Laboratory fees and deposits
  - Arts and Sciences: (Average) $4.00
  - Premedic, each semester: 12.00
  - Business or Education, each semester: 3.00
  - Engineering each semester: $2.00 to $20.00
  - Pharmacy, each semester: $22.00 to $30.00
A late enrolment fee of $2 is charged; for each additional day after class work begins, $1 is added to the initial late enrolment fee of $2 until the maximum of $5 is reached. The clerical fee for "change of studies" card is .50; for re-enrolment after withdrawal, $2.

By action of the Board of Regents a nonresident fee is collected from out-of-state students at the time of enrolment as follows: each semester $50. This fee is in addition to those listed above.

NORMAL EXPENSES OF STUDENTS

A survey of the cost of attending the university, made in 1936-37 under the supervision of the dean of men, showed that nonfraternity men spent from $300 to $500 a year. The cost of board ranged from $120 to $200; for room, from $80 to $100. The average amount spent for all fees, books and laboratory supplies was $120. This is perhaps a little high for freshmen. The cost of entertainment varied greatly; some students spending less than $20, others over $200.

The cost for a girl is approximately the same as for a boy. It has been estimated that a budget of $35 a month will be ample. This will not, however, include clothes.

If a student joins a fraternity, his expenses will be greater.

On an average a budget of $450 will enable a student to spend a year at the university living comfortably.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SELF SUPPORT

The university does not encourage the registration of students who are entirely without financial resources, but it does encourage and assist students who must work to remain in school. The university Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. act as employment bureaus for men and women students.

No student should work unless it is absolutely necessary to do so, for study is the most important occupation at the university. A new student should acquire study habits and establish himself scholastically during his first semester. He is unable to do this if he spends a large part of his time in outside work. Statistics show that grades of self-supporting students are below the average.

The new student should have money enough to take care of expenses for seven months, for most of the available jobs are held by upperclassmen. Students who expect to be employed or to work in exchange for board or room should reduce their class schedules in accordance with the amount of time required for outside work. They should also see that periods of work do not conflict in time with class or laboratory periods.

Three hours of work a day are required in exchange for board, and one hour a day is required for room. Odd jobs and overtime are paid at the rate of thirty cents an hour. A few positions pay by the month, but new students are usually unable to get them.

About thirty per cent of the men and nineteen per cent of the women attending the university work to pay all or part of their expenses.

FACULTY ADVISERS

Each freshman in the university is assigned to a member of the faculty who acts as his adviser and who confers with him on any matters pertaining to the student's welfare. The adviser receives periodical reports from each of the student's instructors, and on the basis of these reports he gives the student whatever counsel may be necessary for the student's progress and development.
THE DEAN OF MEN AND THE WOMEN’S COUNSELOR

Mr. James F. Findlay is dean of men, and Miss Margaret Stephenson is women’s counselor. These officials seek to have personal contact with the individual students. The dean of men and the women’s counselor are responsible for the housing of students and for the oversight of student activities. Their offices are points of clearance for all student affairs. These officials endeavor to give personal attention to freshmen students and to act as interpreters of university regulations.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING STUDENTS

By action of the Board of Regents “all dances, theater parties, tea parties, hiking, calling, dates, or other social engagements are not to take place on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday after the hour of seven p. m.”

1. Entertainments: All entertainments and social affairs given by university organizations on or off the campus, must be approved by a faculty committee on student affairs. Such entertainments will usually be approved for Friday and Saturday nights only.

2. Dances: University students dance only at approved dances. (This is observed during vacations in the school year except when students spend the vacation at home.) Fraternity dance schedules for the year must be in the dean of men’s office before the close of the first two weeks of the school year. Campus organizations must apply for permission to give a dance or any social function at least thirty days before the date of the affair. All such requests must be approved by the Student Activities Committee. Approved dances will close at 11:30 o’clock.

   Approved dances may be given only in Norman.

   The women of any house, with the approval of the house mother, may secure permission to dance informally on short notice. Students may not dance after meals in houses where men and women board, without special permission from the office of the women’s counselor.

AUTOMOBILES

Students attending the university are forbidden to have automobiles in Norman without first securing an official permit from the office of the president of the university.

ROOMS

Students are permitted to room only in houses approved by university authorities. Official lists of approved rooming houses for men may be found at the offices of the dean of men and of Mr. Luman T. Cockerill, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; for women, at the office of the women’s counselor.

   Men and women are not permitted to room at the same house.

   The university reserves the right to specify which houses are approved for men and for women.

   Students are not permitted to live in apartment houses.

HOUSE MOTHERS

House mothers are required to co-operate with the university in the enforcement of all university regulations, and to report promptly all cases that need attention. Women’s fraternities are required to secure approved house mothers. Men’s fraternities have adopted this practice.
The responsibility of the house mother does not in any way relieve the individual student or the student organization from the obligation to observe the university regulations.

RESIDENTIAL HALLS

Robertson Hall and Hester Hall are university dormitories for women. Applications for rooms should be sent to the Director of the Residence Halls. All applications must be in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $5.

All residents will secure their meals in the dining halls. The Board of Regents has directed that all freshman women except those living in sorority houses, those living with their parents, or those working for their board and room, be required to live in the Residential Halls beginning with the opening of the school year 1936-37.

ROOM REGULATIONS

Men Students

1. A room is to be occupied until at least the close of the semester. (Prospective pledges may make a definite contract in writing for a room with a householder for three weeks with the understanding that if he is not pledged he will occupy the room for the remainder of the semester.)

2. No pledge to a fraternity is to leave a rooming-house until the end of the semester. (See 1 above for sole exception.)

3. No student is to change his place of residence without a release from the office of the dean of men.

4. No student is to change his place of residence except under one of the following conditions:
   a. Pay in advance one month from date the notice is given.
   b. Any other arrangement which may be passed upon by university authorities.

5. Students are expected to observe quietness after 7:30 P. M.

W. S. G. A. REGULATIONS

   a. Men from a distance, not including Oklahoma City and other places near Norman, may make calls at women’s approved houses at reasonable hours during the week.
   b. Men may also entertain women guests from a distance during the week if suitable chaperones are provided. (This does not authorize them, however, to invite women students at the same time.)

IV. Chaperonage:

1. University women do not leave Norman without securing the approval of the house mother.

2. No woman shall attend out-of-town games without having made arrangements with the women’s counselor.

3. University women do not go into the country unless chaperoned. Hiking parties chaperoned by junior and senior women return before 8:30 P. M.
The university reserves the right to make suitable regulations governing the conduct of the students while in the university. The house mothers of rooming houses, including fraternities, as well as the parents of students, are expected to aid the university in the enforcement of these regulations.

Note: The term "university students" in the above includes not only those actually enrolled in the university but also those in Norman for the purpose of enrolling as well as those who have withdrawn from the university but have not yet gone home.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Recognizing the importance of protecting the health of students, as individuals and as a group, the university maintains a health service with an adequately trained medical and nursing staff. The purposes of the service are to prevent and treat acute diseases, to aid the departments of physical education for men and for women in the proper classification of students, and to stimulate interest in personal hygiene. Hospitalization, dispensary service, and physical education and health examinations are the three activities through which the health service functions.

HOSPITALIZATION

Ellison Infirmary, a modern, fireproof, three-story building, erected in 1928 from the proceeds of a bond issue authorized by the eleventh Legislature, is a well-equipped hospital of forty beds, with quarters for the health-service medical staff. The infirmary is primarily for the use of students; and any student who is suffering from an acute illness is urged to report promptly to the infirmary to receive competent care and proper observation, and to aid in preventing the spread of infectious diseases.

When the university is in session the infirmary is open at all times, with a registered nurse in charge. Admission is gained upon the recommendation of either of the university physicians or a physician of the student's choice. The health service reserves the right to exclude patients suffering from tuberculosis (except for diagnosis), chronic diseases requiring long hospitalization, and diseases due to the deliberate acts of the individual.

Students entering the infirmary receive general care and food for a period of five days during the semester without charge. Those requiring a longer period of hospitalization will be charged $1 a day for board.

The services of a physician (other than the university physicians) or of a special nurse, medicine, and surgical dressings are not furnished by the university. The fee for the operating room is $5. Necessary X-ray pictures and metabolism tests may be obtained at cost.

DISPENSARY SERVICE

The office of the medical adviser for men and the medical adviser for women are located on the first floor of Ellison Infirmary, where any student may consult physicians and have treatments, during office hours only, for injuries and illness arising while at the university. If referred to the hospital by the university physicians, the student will be attended during acute illness.

Vaccination against smallpox and immunization against typhoid fever are furnished free, and all students are urged to take advantage of this service. Because of the limited size of the health-service staff, the university does not provide medical care for students in their homes or rooming houses. Students are responsible for the fees of outside physicians, surgeons, or specialists.

Students are advised to appear for periodic health examinations at least once a year.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND HEALTH EXAMINATIONS

Women students, upon entering the required courses in physical education in their freshman and sophomore years, are given a complete physical examination by the medical adviser for women, and are properly classified for work in the departments of physical education for women. Special attention is paid to corrective physical exercises.

Men students who expect to enter competitive sports are required to appear for physical examination by the medical adviser for men before engaging in such activities.

Military science is required of men students during the freshman and sophomore years unless physically disqualified. All exemptions from military science for physical disability and all excuses from military science classes on account of illness are passed upon by the health service.

OKLAHOMA UNION

The Oklahoma Union is for the service and benefit of the students, faculty, and friends of the university. In this building will be found a cafeteria, billiard room and bowling alley, ball room, lounges, the University Book Exchange, the offices of the Alumni Secretary, and offices for students in charge of student affairs.

The control of the building is in the hands of a Board of Managers, composed of three alumni and two students, and responsible in turn to a Board of Governors. Regulations regarding the use of the building are made by the managers.

The general manager is Mr. T. M. Beaird, who is in direct supervision of the commercial affairs of the building. The functional activities, such as dances, etc., are directed by a committee of fifteen students.

During the time of registration a bureau of information will be maintained in the Union. New students are cordially invited to make use of all the facilities of the building.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

All student organizations that may have relations with the public are under the control of the university. They must, on organization, present the plan of their proposed undertaking to the Administrative Council and receive from the council a certificate of approval. Membership in any organization not approved by the Administrative Council, or in any organization whose membership is not known to the council, is not permitted.

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

The Student Association of the University of Oklahoma was organized in 1912. Every student is a member of it. The executive committees of the association are, for the men, the Men’s Council; for the women, the Women’s Council. A joint committee, called the Student Activities Trust Fund Committee, manages the finances of the association.

The Women’s Self-Governing Association, formed in 1928, is composed of all women students in the university. Its governing body is the Women’s Council, consisting of the officers of the association and the representatives of the various organized groups of women. The purpose of the association is to develop among the women a feeling of individual responsibility, and to promote high standards in the university social life.

DEBATING AND LITERARY SOCIETIES

The following societies for debating and literary exercises are maintained by men students: Congress, established in 1919; Websterian, organized in 1903; Athenæan organized in 1914; Senate, organized in 1929.
The following societies are maintained by women: Eurodelphian, organized in 1914; Pierian, organized in 1915.

Admittance to these societies is by will of the members. This may usually be obtained through the introduction by friends.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS

Almost every department in the university has established a club composed of faculty members and students. The purpose of these clubs is social and intellectual. They encourage friendships, and arouse and hold the interest of all those who are working in the same field.

HONOR SOCIETIES

There are in the university a number of honor societies, membership in which comes as the reward for excellence in scholarship and high attainments in student activities. Two of these societies are for freshmen. They are:

Phi Eta Sigma, a scholastic honor society for first year men, which established a chapter at the university in 1927. Election is restricted to those who in their first semester or in their first two semesters in the university attain a grade average half way between “A” and “B” in twelve hours of work in addition to physical education or military training.

Alpha Lambda Delta, a scholastic honor society for first year women, which established a chapter at the university in 1928. Election is restricted to those who in their first semester or their first two semesters in the university attain a specified grade average.

PUBLICATIONS

The Oklahoma Daily, the Covered Wagon, a humor and literary magazine, and the Sooner, the student annual, are published by students in the university. They are controlled by the Publication Board. Freshmen are eligible for staff positions on the Covered Wagon and the Sooner.

The Roundup, official organ of the Independent Men’s Association, is published bi-weekly by the university under the supervision of the dean of men.

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

Social fraternities in American universities are the outgrowth of Phi Beta Kappa, at the present time a national honorary scholastic fraternity, founded in 1776 at William and Mary College. Twenty-one national fraternities for men have chapters in the university; and twelve have chapters for women.

Membership in fraternities comes as a result of invitation from within the ranks of the fraternity itself.
