Course Description:
Students will participate in the discussion and analysis of a range of topics, with a focus on the diverse psychological experiences of African Americans.

Some of the topics you will be examining include -
- The African American influences on psychological experiences
- The impact of kinship and family, racial identity, racism and discrimination
- The impact of intersectional identities, and
- The influence of psychological experiences on mental health

For more information or assistance adding the course, please call the AFAM office at 325-2327 or e-mail Ruth Gomez at rsgomez@ou.edu