The History of Lynching

Instructor: Dr. Karlos Hill

Class meets: Tuesday & Thursday,
9:00am - 10:15am, and meets in
Dunham Residential College, rm 0128

Course Description:
The History of Lynching and Racial Violence course will interrogate what has been and continues to be the role of racial violence in American life. The course will explore various topics including enslavement, the 1921 Tulsa Race Riot, the murder of Emmett Till, mass incarceration, and the Black Lives Matter Movement. All students interested in the history of institutional racism and what we can do about it today should take this class.

If you need assistance enrolling, please call the AFAM office at 325-2327 or e-mail or rsgomez@ou.edu