Human and Animal Interaction across Cultures
Anthropology 2253

GEN ED NON-WESTERN CULTURE

Dr. Lori L. Jervis
Fall 2019
Monday/Wednesdays, 3-4:15 p.m.

All across the globe, humans interact with non-human animals every day. This course explores the role of animals in the human experience across a variety of cultures.

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED:

Why do we eat animals?
Why do we have pets?
Do animals have “culture”?
Do all humans see animals the same way?