

Summer 2009 Method of Delivery

If the method of delivery is the same for all sections and courses that you teach, then you only need to fill out one form. Otherwise, you will need to fill out one form for each section and/or course. Duplicate as many copies of this page as needed.

Instructor Name

Dept Course(s)# Section(s)#

- Please identify the primary method of delivery you use for this class.

The class is essentially (mostly) . . . [check one]

(A) a traditional course (live, synchronous, face-to-face, single classroom “seat-time”)

OR

(B) another form of synchronous course (taking place at the same time but different locations as in interactive TV or other “live” interaction between students and faculty.

OR

(C) an online course (as in web pages, email, chat, video files, audio files, etc.)

OR

(D) a CDROM course

OR

(E) a telecourse (video based broadcast, PBS/OETA)

- If you answered either (A) or (B) above (traditional or synchronous), also check one of the following three conditions to indicate whether this class uses Internet technologies to supplement or replace its class time:

(1) the class also uses Internet-based communications (web, email, messaging) to supplement the class time

(2) the class uses Internet-based communications (web, email, messaging) to replace or substitute for portions of the class time

(3) the class doesn't use Internet-based communications

- All technological methods of delivery used in the class. Please check all technological methods of delivery used in the class, no matter their relative frequency.

video-tape or broadcast

email-based

threaded messaging

web-based chat (Internet relay chat, etc.)

web-based video/audio files

CDROM

Experience Based

(Internship, Coop, field experience, practicum)

other (please specify)

other (please specify)

Return to Classroom Management, Buchanan Hall room 233.