Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Atmospheric and Geographic Science
Program: Meteorology, BS

Upon completion of the degree program, students should be able to:

- Develop skills to conduct independent research at a professional level and convey their findings to their peers.

- Have the computational literacy to undertake research. To succeed in graduate school or in the private sector.

- Create the most comprehensive undergraduate dynamic meteorology sequence in the country