Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Architecture
Program: Construction Science, BS

Students completing a B.S. in Construction Science will demonstrate:

- The ability to apply their leadership skills to create a proposal that represents a collaborative interdisciplinary team problem solution.

- The ability to apply current construction technology to analyze and create solutions for typical construction problems.

- Technical competencies required of construction industry professionals.