Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts & Science
Program: English, BA

Upon completion of the B.A. program in English, students should be able to:

- Structure a coherent argument that is supported by relevant evidence from independent analysis and/or research.

- Contextualize the argument and produce an essay that demonstrates facility with conventions of written English as appropriate to academic discourse.