College: Arts & Science
Program: Astrophysics, BS

- Graduates with an Astrophysics degree should be able to demonstrate mastery of physics/astrophysics concepts and problem solving in core physics/astrophysics areas at a level to be successful in graduate school in astrophysics.

- Graduates with an Astrophysics degree should be able to demonstrate the ability to complete a project involving independent research.

- Graduates with an Astrophysics degree should be able to successfully present their research findings in both spoken and written form.