Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts & Science
Program: Human Relations, MHR

- To expose students to the social and philosophical foundations which form the basis for an interdisciplinary approach to human services education. Emphasis is placed on understanding individual, group, and organizational behaviors.

- To provide students with the knowledge and competence necessary to function effectively as professionals in a wide range of human service careers. Emphasis is placed on developing skills related to understanding multicultural group behaviors.

- To prepare students for effective leadership in conflict situations which require data analysis and coordination of individual and group efforts.

- To encourage students to work for the provision of equal opportunities for minority groups and women, and to seek solutions to other community, state, regional, national, and international problems.

- To add to the body of knowledge called “human relations” and, concurrently, assist in delineating the role of human relations practitioners in economic, technological and social development.
