Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts & Science
Program: Mathematics, BA

Upon completion of the B.A. in Mathematics, students should be able to:

- Demonstrate mastery of the basic operational tools and manipulative skills of mathematics.
- Demonstrate an understanding of abstract concepts and the ability to construct clear, logical arguments.
- Understand and explain the relationship between results drawn from different areas of mathematics.