Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts & Science
Program: Native American Studies, BA

Upon completion of the B.A. in Native American Studies, students should be able to:

- Posses a basic understanding of historical developments that have affected Native Americans, as well as an understanding of tribal sovereignty and the political and economic status of contemporary Indian communities, knowledge of the meaning of art, music, and literature in contemporary Indian life, and an understanding of the concept of language and culture.