Program Student Learning Outcomes

College:  Arts & Science
Program:  Philosophy, PhD

- Upon completion of the degree program, students should have a firm grasp of a broad background of philosophical knowledge
- Students will be able to write substantive scholarly papers to the standards of the profession
- Students should be well-versed in pedagogical techniques appropriate to teaching a wide range of philosophy classes.
- Students should be familiar with the variety of service roles that they may be asked to perform as future faculty.