Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts & Science
Program: Public Affairs and Administration, BA

- Students who complete the baccalaureate degree in Political Science or Public Affairs and Administration will have acquired substantial knowledge of political processes and governmental systems in the United States and other nations in the world.

- Students who complete the baccalaureate degree in Political Science or Public Affairs and Administration will have developed both written and oral communication skills.

- Students who complete the baccalaureate degree in Political Science or Public Affairs and Administration will have acquired the analytical skills necessary for understanding complex political phenomena and critically evaluating evidence supporting different points of view.

- Students who complete baccalaureate degrees in Political Science or Public Affairs and Administration will have developed a capacity to use library resources, databases and emerging technology.