Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Business
Program: Business Administration, MBA

- Upon completion of the prelude week in the MBA program, students are required to demonstrate a foundation of quantitative skills necessary to understand concepts in economics, finance, accounting and management.

- Upon completion of the MBA program, students are required to:
  - Demonstrate competency in core subject matter
  - Use decision making problem solving skills
  - Exhibit global awareness and strategic perspectives
  - Understand ethical issues in business
  - Demonstrate leadership and teamwork skills
  - Possess effective communication skills