Program Student Learning Outcomes

College:  Education
Program:  Instructional Leadership and Academic Curriculum, M.Ed.

- Upon completion of the degree program coursework, students should be able to synthesize information related to an education topic of their choosing.

- Upon completion of the degree program, students will demonstrate a deep understanding of critical concepts and principles of their discipline.

- Upon completion of the degree program, students demonstrate an understanding of how to apply discipline specific practices within their professional context.