Program Student Learning Outcomes

College:  Fine Arts
Program:  Design, MFA

Graduates of the MFA program in Design should be able to:

- Identify and create dramatic action through text analysis, personalization, and imagination.
- Identify and create dramatic action through text analysis, personalization, and imagination
- Develop in-depth understanding of how design contributes to the creation of theater through course work and participation in realized productions.