Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Fine Arts
Program: Music, PhD

Graduates of the PhD program in Music should be able to:

- Design and implement appropriate research-based studies that are significant and contribute to the discipline.

- Demonstrate broad knowledge of the philosophical, psychological, and sociological foundations of music education.

- Apply knowledge of music theory and musicology/ethnomusicology to their area of research.