International Training Institute for Professionals in the Field of Child Maltreatment
Haruv USA

Haruv USA at the University of Oklahoma-Tulsa is a new venture bringing together the best of two worlds - the unique expertise and international leadership of Haruv Institute paired with the research-based educational knowledge and expertise of OU-Tulsa and the Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work.

An initiative of the Charles and Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation, Haruv USA focuses on interprofessional education and training for students and professionals who touch the lives of children from a wide variety of settings. Our innovative programs equip participants with up-to-date theoretical and empirical knowledge and professional tools.

Social Simulations

One of Haruv USA’s greatest strengths is frequent use of simulations that employ highly specified training for unique scenarios. Haruv USA’s simulations take place in the state-of-the-art Tandy Education Center at OU-Tulsa.
Haruv Institute In Jerusalem

The Haruv Institute in Jerusalem is an international center of excellence and Israel’s leading authority in the field of child abuse and neglect and a core player in creation of knowledge and training. Established by the Schusterman Foundation-Israel in 2007, Haruv’s mission is to create knowledge and nurture a capable and skillful community of professionals dedicated to prevention, identification, reporting and treatment of child abuse and neglect.
