Understanding your charges/scholarship

Tuition and fees are assessed in July, December, and May and due in full the following month, respectively. Incomplete financial aid applications/documentation, enrollment cancellation and/or withdrawal and unpaid balances may carry financial and/or registration consequences. Accounts with an unpaid tuition balance at the open of any enrollment period will be contacted for financial coaching/guidance. Payment of all charges not covered in the student-athlete’s signed Financial Aid agreement with the Athletic Department is your responsibility.

Flat-rate tuition

Flat-rate tuition is charged to undergraduate students upon full-time registration. Students who enroll in 12 to 21 hours per semester will pay a flat rate. Students enrolled in fewer than 12 hours pay per-credit-hour. Flat-rate does not apply to Graduate, Law, or Advanced Program students. Students enrolled in only Liberal Studies courses will be charged tuition and fees on a per-credit-hour basis. Full-time undergraduate students who register for fewer than 30 hours for fall and spring may be eligible to participate in the summer session incentive program, Banked Hours. For more information visit ou.edu/flat-rate.

Banked hours

Full-time undergraduate students who have paid the flat-rate and take fewer than 15 hours per semester may be able to bank hours to use in the summer. The hours a student banks will automatically be used to reduce summer charges for tuition and mandatory hourly fees. Banked hours cannot be converted into cash, nor held for a future academic year.

Rule of 30

When your attempted hours* for the academic year total 30 or more you are no longer eligible for a Flat-Rate Exemption or Summer Banked Hours.

*includes hours that receive a "W"

Flat-rate exemption

Student-athletes receiving partial scholarships may be interested in applying for flat-rate exemption due to time-commitment and/or scholarship restrictions. Student-athletes must contact their designated academic adviser for information and documentation needed to apply for flat-rate exemption status. Student-athletes approved for flat-rate exemption are not eligible for banked hours for the corresponding semesters.

Summer scholarship
Student-athletes needing to enroll in a summer term for pending graduation, athletic eligibility or other important academic reasons may be eligible for financial aid. However, this aid may be applied differently than the financial aid received during the academic year. Therefore, aid during these terms may not pay all expenses related to the summer course. Student-athletes must attend classes and assigned tutorial/academic support sessions regularly during the fall, spring and summer semesters. Habitual tardiness and failure to regularly attend classes and tutorials will result in summer term financial aid reduction or cancellation. Because summer classes are considered separate from your academic-year scholarship, advance approval is required for scholarship athletes by the associate athletics director for academics and your athletics academic adviser.

Student-athletes receiving athletics-related aid for summer:
• You must attend class on a regular basis. Should you fail to attend class, your personal bursar account will be billed for all departmental expenditures made on your behalf for this term. Should you decide to cancel your enrollment, you must notify your athletics academic adviser prior to the start of classes. Furthermore, you may only receive summer-term financial aid when you are enrolled in school.

• The Athletics Department strives to assist each student-athlete in completing course work applicable to their degree and will provide financial assistance for summer and intersession classes when appropriate and available. Students receiving a failing grade (W, AW, F, I) in any such class will be charged for the associated room-and-board costs, per Athletics Department policy.
