The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art welcomes visitors of all ages to explore the visual arts. The collection numbers nearly 6,000 art objects from many world cultures.

TOURS

Docents are trained volunteers who give tours of the Museum of Art. Docent-led tours of the Museum of Art are available Tuesday through Sunday last approximately 45 minutes. There is no charge for tours, however, we do ask that they are scheduled at least two weeks in advance by calling (405)325-3272.

When you call to arrange your tour, please have the following information available: group name, address, phone number, area(s) of interest, special needs, and requested tour date and time.

For children under 18, we ask that you bring one adult for every ten children to serve as chaperones. Adults must be responsible for enforcing proper museum behavior.

FOR EDUCATORS

We encourage teachers of all subjects to use the Museum of Art’s resources to enrich your curriculum and expand your students’ appreciation of the visual arts. Curriculum Packets incorporate information about The Fleischaker Collection with Oklahoma’s Priority Academic Student Skills.

The education staff is happy to conduct teacher workshops for schools and school districts. Please call Alyson Stanfield, curator of education, if you would like us to come to your school.

The Fleischaker Collection is the most recent acquisition to the Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art's permanent collection.
There are currently over 150 works on display showcasing art from the plains, the Pueblos, and the painters of the Southwest.
Docent-led tours this spring will highlight various painting media, styles, and techniques.

This collection moves the museum to a new level among university art museums in the United States. This gives us a collection of national stature and will serve to attract additional gifts.
