Glass Works on Display

This 1992 untitled glass sculpture by Czeslaw Zuber is included in the current exhibit on view at the Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art titled “Glass From Ancient Craft to Contemporary Art: 1962-1992 and Beyond.” A total of 86 works by 60 international artists comprises the exhibit. In conjunction with the exhibit, glass artist and craftsman Kreg Kallenberger will present a free public lecture titled “Working in Glass” at 2 p.m. Feb. 14 in Holmberg Hall, 560 Parrington Oval, Norman. “Glass From Ancient Craft” will remain on view through March 7. For information: 325-3272.