One of 1994’s Top Ten Collectors on display at Fred Jones Jr. Museum

The public is invited to attend an exhibition of contemporary American and European art collected by Stephane Janssen that opened Jan. 22 and continues through Feb. 26 at the University of Oklahoma Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

The exhibition, which originates at the Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art, will travel through Europe in 1995 and 1996.

“The exhibition features powerful paintings, mixed-media assemblages and several sculptures executed in passionate, tough and, at times, fierce expressions which command the viewer’s attention,” he said. “These works of art have generated critical interest for their intense aesthetic and physical form, as well as for each artist’s compelling need to create them.”

In addition, the museum will present a photography installation titled “Survivors Not Victims: Portraits by Patrick V. Brown.”

Museum hours are 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays; 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursdays; and 1 to 4:30 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays. Free parking passes, usable in the reserved spaces on the north ends of the Parrington (north) Oval, can be obtained at the museum’s security desk at 410 E. Boyd.

For more information, to make arrangements for group tours, or for more accommodations on the basis of disability, call (405) 325-3272.