Course Objectives:
To assist students with understanding
- various dimensions of culture;
- cultural issues impacting ethnic/racial minorities;
- cultural issues impacting persons with disabilities;
- cultural issues impacting women;
- cultural issues impacting the elderly;
- how previously mentioned issues impact counseling and other helping relationships; and
- how counseling and other helping relationships can help ethnic/racial minorities, persons with disabilities, women and the elderly.

Learning Outcomes:
At the conclusion of this course student will be able to:
- Articulate some of the critical cultural issues impacting ethnic/racial minorities, persons with disabilities, women, and the elderly
- Articulate how cultural issues are impacting counseling and other helping professions
- Articulate how counseling and other helping professions can be of assistance to the previously mentioned cultural groups.

Instructional Methods:
Lecture, Class discussion, and group work.

Assignments, Grading, and Due Dates:
1. Students must read the required text books before the first class session.
2. Two papers are required. Each paper must by a minimum of eight (8) double spaced typewritten pages in length (title, abstract and reference pages do not count as part of the six pages). Each paper must have a minimum of three (3) references. Internet, newspaper articles, magazine articles, and course text are acceptable.
   a. Paper #1 requires the student to select one of the ethnic/racial groups and write a paper with regard to one or more issues impacting this group. This paper should describe the issue(s) and identify how these issues are impacting the group. Paper is due first night of class. This paper is worth 30 percent of the final grade.
   b. Paper #2 requires the student to select a topic related to disabilities and discuss the issues surrounding the disability topic. Examples are: Title 1 of the Americans with Disability Act deals with employment; therefore the topic could be how does societal perceptions of persons with disabilities impact them being employed or the topic could be a specific disability such as mental illness or intellectual limitations and the paper could deal with rights of persons who have these types of disabilities (these are provided as examples, you select the disability which has the most meaning to you and your education.) These are only two examples and they are offered to stimulate thought with regard to subjects about which to write. This paper is due one week after the class has ended, September 27, 2015, and is worth 30 percent of the final grade.
3. Each student is required to bring to class at least five (5) cultural issues that impact counseling and other helping professions to be used in class discussions. These are due at the first class session. This is worth five percent of the final grade.
4. Group presentations are worth 30 percent of the final grade. Details of group presentation will be discussed the first night of class.
5. Class attendance and participation is worth five (5) percent of the final grade.
Grading:
This is a letter graded course: A, B, C, D, F, 90-100=A, 80-89=B, 70-79=C, 60-69=D, Below 60=F

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.
Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/
