Course Title:
Topics in International Studies: International Activism

Course Number:
IAS 5940-501

Course Description:
This course examines the role that nongovernmental actors and individuals play in international relations as they work independently and in concert to advocate for various transnational causes. The goal of this course is to raise awareness and enhance our understanding of the multitude of actors that work internationally to address issues of concern and how we might potentially contribute. As such we will explore the history of the study of activism, the evolution of activism and activist causes, the tools and messaging used as well as explore the different types of activism.

Course Dates:
September 28-October 9, 2015
Last day to enroll or drop without penalty: August 30, 2015

5. Additional materials will be posted on the OU Desire to Learn (D2L) system: Access D2L at http://learn.ou.edu; enter your OU NetID and password, and select course to access material. Please contact your local Site Director if you require assistance.

Note: Follett is the Advanced Programs contractual textbook provider. Should text changes become necessary after publication of the course syllabus, Advanced Programs will facilitate text returns/refunds only for texts purchased through Follett.

OU E-Mail:
All official correspondence from distance learning instructors will be sent only to students’ ou.edu address.

Online Learning Resource Center:
The Online Learning Resource Center of the University of Oklahoma’s College of Arts and Sciences Online Program is here to serve you and assist you with any questions, problems, or concerns you may have. For assistance go to http://casweb.ou.edu/olr/ or contact us by telephone at: (405) 325-5854 or Email: casonline@ou.edu

Course Objectives:
1. Students will understand that activism is much more than protesting in the street, it is an ever-evolving means of advancing a cause or challenging the status quo.
2. Students will know the difference between political activism, social activism and social entrepreneurialism.
3. Students will investigate an international Non-Governmental Organization to see not just what cause the NGO is advocating for, but how it is doing so.
4. Students will leave this class understanding that activism is incredibly difficult, but that it is also empowering- small steps can add up.

Assignments, Grading, and Due Dates:
The course is divided into three segments. Each segment involves a set of readings/videos, a writing assignment, and a discussion topic. Students will complete the assigned readings, submit their written work, and then participate in a virtual discussion on the D2L course management system during a pre-specified window; the instructor will participate in the discussion during each period. The instructor will post each discussion prompt on D2L.

Each of the four components of the course (the three papers of approximately 4-5 double-spaced pages each, and participation in discussions) will count for 25% of the course grade. The participation grade will be based on quality – not simply quantity – of contributions to the discussion and interaction with other students.

Schedule of Assignments and Discussions

The Study and Practice of Activism
- Read: The Life you Can Save in its entirety (it is a relatively easy read)
- Read: Activists Beyond Borders Chaps. 1 & 2
- View: Compilation of slides and videos where art and symbols are used as tools of activism
- First Essay: Assignment due to the D2L dropbox by midnight CST on Monday, September 28:
  You are to research an international organization of your choice (e.g. Red Cross, Amnesty International, Green Peace etc.). Explain the foundation of the organization, its mission and its activities. Look for examples of information, symbolic, accountability and leverage politics (as defined in Activists Beyond Borders). Also, explore its fundraising and check out charity navigator to see how it spends its money. You only have about 5 pages and a lot of information to relay, so be concise.

- Discussion window: Wednesday, October 7 at noon (CST) to Friday, October 9 at noon (CST)

Final Exam:

A final exam will be given out Friday October 9 at 5:00pm (CST). Must be submitted to the dropbox by noon Saturday, October 17.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

Attendance Policy:

Although physical class meetings are not part of this course, participation in all interactive, learning activities is required.

Student assignments and student/instructor communications will be conducted via Desire2Learn, although students may contact the instructor via e-mail as needed.

Incomplete Grade Policy:

A grade of “I” is not automatically assigned, but rather must be requested by the student by submitting to the instructor a “Petition for and Work to Remove an Incompleted Grade” form. An “I” can never be used in lieu of an “F” nor can an “I” be assigned because of excessive failure to participate in class activities.

Technical Support Information:

If you experience technical problems, contact Information Technology by visiting their website at: http://webapps.ou.edu/it/ or contacting them by telephone at: (405) 325-HELP (4357).

Procedures for Completion of Course Evaluation:

Upon completion of the course students should go to the Advanced Programs Online Learning Information webpage and click on the applicable semester link under “Online Course Evaluation” which will direct them to the evaluation. The evaluation will take approximately five minutes to complete. Completion of the online evaluation is an important tool allowing Advanced Programs to gain information and student feedback for improvement of courses.

Your responses will be kept confidential. They will be reviewed by the department and only supplied to the professor once grades for the course have been submitted.
POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Note: Attendance/absences do not apply to online courses. However, participation in all course activities is extremely important to student success in online courses.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/
