Course Objectives:

1. To understand the principles and processes of foreign policy making in the United States.
2. To comprehend American foreign policy from an historical perspective.
3. To develop the tools necessary to analyze American foreign policies.
4. To recognize the role of foreign policy makers and analysts.
5. To consider the present and future status of American foreign policy.

Course Outline:

Monday: Introduction to the course

- Discussion of group projects and presentations
- Perceptions of American foreign policy today
- Reading: Hastedt, American Foreign Policy, chapters 1 and 2

Tuesday: The traditions of American foreign policy

- American foreign policy in theoretical and historical perspective
- Readings: Slaughter, The Idea that is America
  Hastedt, chapters 3 and 4

Wednesday: Foreign policy decision-making – internal and external sources of AFP

Saturday: The future of American Foreign Policy

- Reading: Hastedt, chapter 14
- Group presentations and discussions
- Conclusion of course
- Review for final exam

Sunday: Final Examination

Assignments, Due Dates, and Grading:

Group Presentations:

Students will be divided into groups and tasked with exploring, examining and analyzing a current US foreign policy problem. Each group will provide an in-class presentation that outlines a specific policy issue, provides sources of the policy, discusses relevant policy instruments, evaluates policy outcomes, and offers suggestions for future policy action. Additional details and guidance will be discussed in class.

Class Participation:

Students must read the assigned material before coming to class and contribute as much as possible to the in-class discussions. Each student is likely to find considerable benefit in the exchange of ideas, doubts, and criticisms during discussions. Much of the value of a graduate class is in the sharing of the knowledge and perspective that each participant brings to the sessions.

Final Exam:
A final exam will be administered during the final class session. The exam will cover all material discussed in class, as well as the Slaughter, Hastedt and Nye readings.

Grading:
This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. The standard grade scale will apply: 90%-100% = A; 80%-89% = B; 70%-79% = C; 60%-69% = D; below 60% = F.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/
