OU Email:
All official correspondence from distance learning instructors will be sent only to students’ ou.edu address.

Online Orientation:
The College of Arts and Sciences offers an online orientation for students who are enrolled in online or blended courses. The purpose of the orientation is to ensure that students are well prepared both technically and practically to take online courses. The orientation can be found on their website at: http://www.ou.edu/content/cas/online/student-online-orientation.html

The College of Arts and Sciences Online and Academic Technology Services office is here to assist you with any questions, problems, or concerns you may have. For assistance visit their website at http://www.ou.edu/content/cas/online/student-information.html or contact them by telephone at: (405) 325-5854 or email: casonline@ou.edu

Course Objectives:
The objectives of this course are:

- To understand the definitions of and differences among several types of student writing, such as literature reviews, class essays and comprehensive examination responses;
- To learn specific practices and techniques associated with good academic writing;
- To increase understanding of how to generate thesis statements, create good search terms and conduct online library research;
- To develop an ability to read and evaluate peer-reviewed journal and/or research articles critically and to grasp their major premises;
- To create a logical outline based on readings that describes and develops the thesis statement;
- To complete short essays and other practice activities; and
- To develop and write a literature review that meets the detailed rubric shared with students.

Assignments, Grading, and Due Dates:
Please note that this course is supported by Desire 2 Learn (D2L), and all course materials excluding the texts will be found on D2L. This will include links to specific Internet resources.

When submitting papers, please use the digital drop box on D2L. Some assignments also require posting on a specific discussion board.

Instructional Strategies
Students will use written materials, small group discussions and projects, and practice activities.

Ongoing Desire 2 Learn Discussions
You are expected to participate in the discussions posted on D2L. These will help us get to know each other and recreate some of the interaction we would normally get in the classroom. For that reason, your participation is required, though not graded. For each discussion, you should post at least one original message and two responses to other students.

Reading Assignments
Reading assignments for each week will be clearly listed under the Content tab in D2L. Readings should be completed prior to engaging in the online discussions or responding to the other assignments.
Short Essays
There are two short (300-word) essay assignments required. Writing prompts and further instructions will be found on D2L, in addition to a rubric for each essay.

Individual Assignment
There is one individual assignment, related to an assigned tutorial on avoiding plagiarism.

Small Group Quizzes
There are three small group quizzes, instructions for which will be found on D2L.

Literature Review
Each student will identify, read, and analyze appropriate research articles to write an eight- to 10-page literature review on a topic in human relations study. Further instructions and a detailed rubric will be available on D2L.

Literature Review Benchmarks
In order to help you stay on a targeted timeline for your literature review, benchmarks have been defined. (See below.) You will complete each and upload into the D2L Dropbox by the required due date.

Assignment Due Dates
The course is organized into four modules and within each module by week. You should work your way through the modules sequentially, completing all activities as given for each week by the assigned dates.

Please refer to the “Course Schedule and Assignment Due Dates” under the Content tab in D2L for a detailed listing of all course content and dates.

Grading:
This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. Grades will be determined as follows:

- A = 90% -100% (135 – 150 points)
- B = 80% - 89% (120 – 134 points)
- C = 70% - 79% (105 – 119 points)
- D = 60% - 69% (90 – 104 points)
- F = below 60% (89 or fewer points)
Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

Policy for Late Work:
Please contact the professor regarding his/her policy for late work

Attendance Policy:
In addition to interaction via Desire2Learn and email contact, students are required to contact the instructor via email or telephone before the beginning of the course term for an initial briefing. Although physical class meetings are not part of this course, participation in all interactive, learning activities is required.

Student assignments and student/instructor communications will be conducted via Desire2Learn, although students may contact the instructor via telephone, postal mail, email, or fax as needed

Incomplete Grade Policy:
A grade of “I” is not automatically assigned, but rather must be requested by the student by submitting to the instructor a “Petition for and Work to Remove an Incompleted Grade” form. An “I” can never be used in lieu of an “F” nor can an “I” be assigned because of excessive failure to participate in class activities.

Technical Support Information:
If you experience technical problems, contact Information Technology by visiting their website at: http://webapps.ou.edu/it/ or contacting them by telephone at: (405) 325-HELP (4357).

Procedures for Completion of Course Evaluation:
Upon completion of the course students should go to the Advanced Programs Online Learning Information webpage and click on the applicable semester link under “Online Course Evaluation” which will direct them to the evaluation. The evaluation will take approximately five minutes to complete. Completion of the online evaluation is an important tool allowing Advanced Programs to gain information and student feedback for improvement of courses.

Your responses will be kept confidential. They will be reviewed by the department and only supplied to the professor once grades for the course have been submitted.
POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Note: Attendance/absences do not apply to online courses. However, participation in all course activities is extremely important to student success in online courses.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Course Policies

Advanced Programs policy is to order books in paperback if available. Courses, dates, and professors are subject to change. Please check with your OU Site Director. Students should retain a copy of any assignments that are mailed to the professor for the course.
