Advanced Programs – Course Syllabus

Course Title:
International Law

Course Number:
IAS 5013-220

Course Description:
This course is an advanced graduate survey on the subject of Public International Law. It focuses both on classical topics of International Law such as subjects and sources of International Law, law of treaties, state jurisdiction and responsibility. In addition to this, we will discuss contemporary issues of International Law including the protection of individuals under International Law and the repression of international crimes. This course is designed to provide students with a broad understanding of International Law and the role it plays in international relations.

Assignments, Grading & Due Dates:

Summary Reports:
Summary Reports count for 40% of your final grade. There will be 4 summary reports covering 14 cases that will be assigned throughout the course (see chart below). The cases due for summary report will be available on D2L a month before classes begin. In the reports, students need to summarize the case and demonstrate understanding of the material. There is no length limit; however, summaries of each case must include the facts of the case, position of the parties to the dispute, issue before the Court, and reasoning and conclusion of the Court. Personal opinions about the subject are welcome. I advise you to post your summary reports as early as you can. Take into consideration that some cases are lengthy and time consuming. These reports can be posted at any time, as long as they are posted by the due date.

Additionally, each summary report must be posted on a single document on learn.ou.edu in the drop-box according to the schedule shown below. As you can see, each report consists of several cases. Analyze each case independently. Do not combine the cases as each case deals with different aspect of International Law. All 14 cases are due. Make sure to have a heading for each case under analysis. There is an example of a well-written summary report on learn. I will not accept hard copies. If you experience problems posting your report on learn.ou.edu, e-mail it to me by the due date. Late summary reports will not be accepted.

Final Exam:
There will be one examination, which counts for 50% of your final grade. The final exam will be an open-book exam held on the last day of class. It will cover the entire course material. The exam will include hypothetical cases, short essay questions and/or multiple choice questions. Missing the final exam will be equivalent to failing the course.
Participation:
Class participation will count for 10% of your final grade. This course requires class participation. I will adjust final grades for students who have actively participated in class discussion and who have demonstrated knowledge of the required material.

Document Supplement:
I have compiled a packet to be used in class, which contains relevant treaties to class discussion. All supplemental in-class materials will be posted at learn.ou.edu. Be sure to print the packet and have it in class with you each day, as we will reference it regularly.

Grading:
This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. Grading Scale: 90 to 100% guarantees an A; 75% to 89% is a B; 60% to 74% is a C; 40% to 59% D; below 40% is an F.

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.
Policies and Notices

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/
