Course Objectives:

- To understand the principles and processes of foreign policy making in America.
- To comprehend American foreign policy from an historical perspective.
- To develop the tools necessary to analyze American foreign policies.
- To recognize the role of foreign policy makers and analysts.
- To consider the future of American foreign policy.

Course Outline:

I. Introduction: Traditions of American Foreign Policy
II. The Executive Branch (I)
III. The Executive Branch (II)
IV. Mid-Term Examination
V. Congress and the Judiciary; Societal Factors
VI. External Factors; Final Examination

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

1. Students are expected to read:
   a. before the first class meeting: Mead, Chapters 1-7.
   b. before the second class meeting: The Constitution of the United States, Article II.
   c. before the third class meeting: Allison chapter
   d. before the fourth class meeting: review all materials
   e. before the fifth class meeting: The Constitution of the United States, Article I.
   f. before the sixth class meeting: Kagan (entire); Mead, Chapters 8, 9.

2. Students are expected to participate actively in class discussion of the material. Students must read the assigned material before coming to class and contribute as much as possible to the discussions in class. Each student is likely to find considerable benefit in the exchange of ideas, doubts, and criticisms during discussions. Much of the value of a graduate class is in the sharing of the knowledge and perspective that each participant brings to the sessions.

3. A mid-term exam will be administered on Friday, and a cumulative final exam will be administered Sunday afternoon. Both examinations will cover material from the assigned readings and class discussion.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. Final grades will be calculated as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Due Date</th>
<th>Percent of Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Class Participation</td>
<td>April 1-6, 2014</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mid-Term Examination</td>
<td>April 4, 2014</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final Examination</td>
<td>April 6, 2014</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Grades will be determined by the quality of written work and class participation. The professor reserves the right to adjust grades in borderline cases depending on the quality of an individual’s in-class participation and discussion.

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.
POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Honesty

Honesty is a fundamental precept in all academic activities and … [you] have a special obligation to observe the highest standards of honesty. Academic misconduct in any form is inimical to the purposes and functions of the University and is therefore unacceptable and is rigorously proscribed. Academic misconduct includes:

- cheating (using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise), plagiarism, falsification of records, unauthorized possession of examinations, intimidation, and any and all other actions that may improperly affect the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement;
- assisting others in any such act; or attempting to engage in such acts.

All acts of academic misconduct will be reported and adjudicated as prescribed by the student code of the University of Oklahoma. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity.

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.
