Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

Assignment 1:

Value of Leadership Reflection due via email on Friday January 27, 2017 by 11:59 p.m., 5% of overall course grade.

Reflection paper should be a maximum of 5 pages in length with the student discussing their past experience in a leadership role, challenges or conflicts that occurred within this role, and lessons learned from this experience.

Assignment 2:

Negative Supervision Reflection due via email on Friday February 3, 2017 by 11:59 p.m., 5% of overall course grade

Reflection paper should be a maximum of 5 pages in length with the student discussing a specific past employment situation where supervision that was delivered to them did not fit their need or was negatively received by the student. The paper should include the student’s description and reflection on this experience, why was the experience negative for the student, what actions or behavior from the supervisor did not fit the student’s needs, and what lessons did the student learn from this experience.

Assignment 3:

National Leader Reflection due via email on Friday February 17, 2017 by 11:59 p.m., 10% of overall course grade

Reflection paper should be a maximum of 7 pages excluding title and bibliography pages. All citations should follow the APA format. Students should choose a leader that holds a CEO or Director Position for a profit or nonprofit organization that operates on the national level that they have affinity towards. The student should validate their affinity through documentation located from scholarly, newspaper, or magazine articles that highlight the leader’s leadership competencies. The student should dissect the leader’s competencies and state their opinion as to why these competencies are critical in leadership utilizing the course texts to support their argument.

Assignment 4:

Human Resources Plan due via email on Friday March 10, 2017 by 11:59 p.m., 20% of overall course grade.

Develop a comprehensive set of plans to aid in human resource management. Be sure to use the text to determine the necessary components for each plan.

Orientation Plan:

Develop a detailed orientation checklist for new employees.

1. Identify which tasks need to be completed by when and by whom.
2. Provide a one page narrative to correspond to the checklist explaining specifically how the employee will be introduced to the organizations’ culture and communication style.
3. Explain how expectations of the employee are to be communicated.

Supervision Plan:

Develop two behaviorally anchored rating scales for use in supervision with the following staff positions:

1. Direct services staff
2. Administrative support staff

Burnout Prevention and Retention Plan:

Devise a one-year plan that describes the activities that you will engage in to prevent burnout in the workplace for yourself and retain high achieving staff.

1. Identify specific strategies to increase employee retention through reduction of burnout symptoms as well as increase team cohesion and motivation.
2. What activities will you engage in to reduce burnout? If there are costs associated, where will the funds come from?
3. What activities will you engage in to build team cohesion?
4. How will you structure staff meetings or gatherings to facilitate retention?
5. How will you structure the work to ensure employee productivity?

Assignment 5:

Value of Coaching Reflection due by email on Friday March 24, 2017 by 11:59 p.m., 5% of the overall course grade

Reflection paper should be a maximum of 5 pages in length excluding the title page. The student should define the role of a coach, their experience as a coach or being coached, the competencies they believe are necessary to be an effective coach, and lessons learned from serving as a coach or being coached. The student should then discuss their own coaching style and how they believe they would apply that style to a workplace setting coaching a staff team.

Assignment 6:

Leadership Competencies Project – 35% of overall course grade

Throughout the course students will be engaged with a variety of leadership and communication assessments to measure their own emotional intelligence, styles of supervision, and styles of communication. Utilizing these assessments as well as the course readings and prior assignments, the students should develop a 20 minute presentation utilizing power point and other video or media sources to support their presentation. The project purpose is for the students to share what they have determined to be their leadership and staff supervision competencies based upon prior course work and class attendance. The students will highlight these competencies, discuss practical application of these competencies, and provide examples of these competencies in practice.
The presentation outline is due by email by Friday April 7, 2017 by 11:59 p.m. The outline should highlight the major presentation points, examples, and applications. The outline should be a maximum of 5 pages in length. (15% of overall course grade)

The in class presentation will be delivered on either April 24, 2017 or May 1, 2017 and must be 20 minutes in length with an associated power point including video or other media content to support the student’s main arguments. (20% of overall course grade)

Assignment presentation times will be determined at the beginning of the semester.

Attendance and in class participation

Attendance and in class participation will comprise 20% of the overall course grade. Excused absences are defined in the student codebook. Outside of the exceptions in the codebook, students are expected to attend all class sessions. Lecture material and discussions are central to student learning. Students who miss more than two classes may NOT be eligible to complete the course in the given semester.

Students are responsible for all course information presented and/or materials regardless of absences. Students are strongly recommended to contact other students for updates in the event of an absence.

Students are expected to arrive on time and to remain present for the duration of the class. Students who arrive late or leave early, including from class breaks, may be considered absent at the instructor’s discretion.

Grading:

This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F.

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.

Academic Conduct:

Each student should acquaint themself with the University’s codes, policies, and procedures involving academic misconduct, grievances, sexual and ethnic harassment and discrimination based on physical handicap. This information can be obtained at studentconduct.ou.edu. Students should also be familiar with the Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work Student Performance Policy and the NASW Code of Ethics.

Statement of Reasonable Accommodation:

The University of Oklahoma is committed to providing reasonable accommodation for all students with disabilities. Students with disabilities must be registered with the Disability Resource Center (Norman) or the Office of Disability Resources (Tulsa). These offices then determine and notify the student and instructor of any accommodations in this course.

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/
