Suggested but not required readings:

Course Objectives:

This course is designed to:

- provide a broad interdisciplinary overview of human emotions
- increase understanding of emotions and their functions cognitively as well as socially
- increase understanding of the emotional networks in the brain
- increase understanding of social construction in emotions
- improve your functioning as a human relations professional through integration of this information in interactions

Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

1. Read the text Understanding Emotions prior to the first day of class and be prepared to participate in class discussions regarding the text materials. You will be assigned a chapter of this book to discuss in class either individually or in pairs or small groups (depending on the class size). This will be an oral/discussion assignment in class but you will know “your” chapter prior to the start of class.

2. Pre-class paper. Select an emotion and write a 6-10 page paper about that emotion. The research in the paper should cover several aspects of information regarding the emotion and include at least 3 references other than the textbook. Due the 1st day of class to the dropbox online.

3. Prepare a 10-15 minute class presentation of your findings about the emotion you wrote about in assignment 2. This will be an oral report in class.

4. In-class participation in experiential, written, and discussion exercises exploring emotions.

5. Final post-class paper. Within three weeks after the last class, April 8, 2017. If you do not want to receive an “Incomplete”, submit a 5-6 page paper addressing one of the following applications of the study of human emotions summarizing the information you find and how you can apply it to your professional work and personal life.

   - Emotional intelligence
   - Leadership and emotions
   - Relationships and emotions
   - Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
   - Emotions in the workplace
   - Emotions and health
- Tapping/Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT)
- Mindfulness

POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/

Accommodation Statement

The University of Oklahoma is committed to making its activities as accessible as possible. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact your local OU Site Director.

Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth-Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. Please see http://www.ou.edu/content/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html.
Title IX Resources

For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24/7, counseling services, mutual no-contact orders, scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at smo@ou.edu or (405) 325-2215 (8-5), or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 615 -0013 (24/7) to report an incident.
